DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. Claim 1 recites the limitation "the upright" in line 13. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
4. Claim 2 recites the limitations "the vertical surfaces" in lines 4-5 and "the construction member" in line 5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.
5. Claim 3 recites the limitation "the construction member" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
6. Claim 4 recites the limitation "the upright" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Double Patenting

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321© may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

8. Claims 1-4 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the claim (Figs. 7-8) of U.S. Patent No. D451,204.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the '204 reference claims an anti-nesting device for a post frame building. In regards to claim 2 of the instant application, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select a resilient material as the material choice for the device, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
